BUILDING WORLDS

BUILDING WORLDS: HOW TO MAKE YOUR OWN COMIC BOOKS is a guide that teaches readers of all ages the basics of storytelling.

BUILDING WORLDS sneakily explains how to write and draw your own stories during a whole new adventure through parallel worlds for some of the characters from our previous book, ALIEN IN THE OUTFIELD! It's a how-to guide and a spin-off rolled into one!

We catch up with lovable loser Rendell, who's now trying to make it big in the world of comics. Teaming up with the precocious Maggie, who wants to learn how to tell her own stories, the pair get lost in a fantastical world of their own creation - where anything they imagine can come to life. Their journey home is the setting for what becomes an instructional guide for young readers who want to know how to make their own comic books.

Using the skills and techniques taught in the book, the story can only be completed with the help of the reader. It's Grant Morrison vibes for the Teen Titans Go generation! A fourth-wall-shattering book that entertains and informs!

ROSWELL ROCKETS DON'T LOSE!

TEAM MAKES LOCAL HISTORY AS LITTLE LEAGUE CHAMPIONS
GAME IS ABANDONED AFTER FREAK WEATHER EVENT!

The Roswell Rockets made New Mexico State Little League Baseball Championship history by remaining unbeaten for the entire season.

Unfortunately the Rockets could not be crowned champions as the final game of the season was called off due to freak weather conditions. Many spectators also reported black outs and amnesia with no one really sure what the heck happened in the final innings. Coach Brown said "Well obviously I would have preferred to win the darn thing but not losing is okay, I guess".

More on page 2.

ALL MY BUDDIES ON THE TEAM EVENTUALLY WENT OFF TO COLLEGE, WHILE I WENT TO WASHINGTON TO TRY AND MAKE IT AS A COMIC BOOK CREATOR....

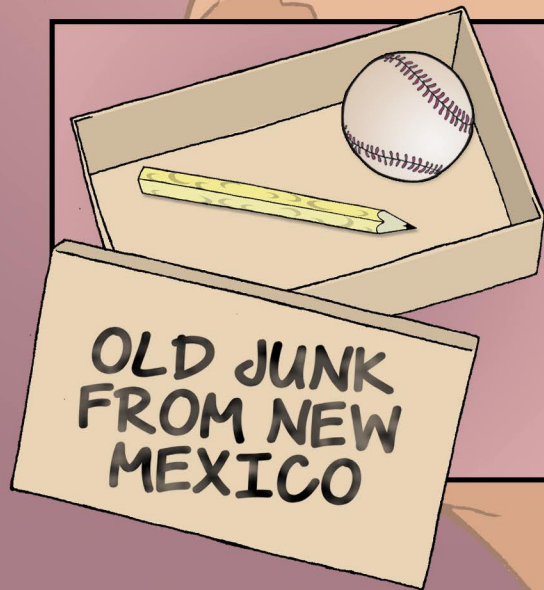

LITTLE DID I KNOW, D.C. COMICS WEREN'T ACTUALLY BASED IN D.C. ...

OH MAN, THAT WAS MY FAVOURITE PENCIL.

CRACK! SNAP!

ONCE I WORKED OUT ALL THE BIG COMIC BOOK PUBLISHERS WERE ACTUALLY IN NEW YORK CITY, I HEADED THERE AND - EVENTUALLY - LANDED MYSELF A JOB AT MARVEL COMICS.

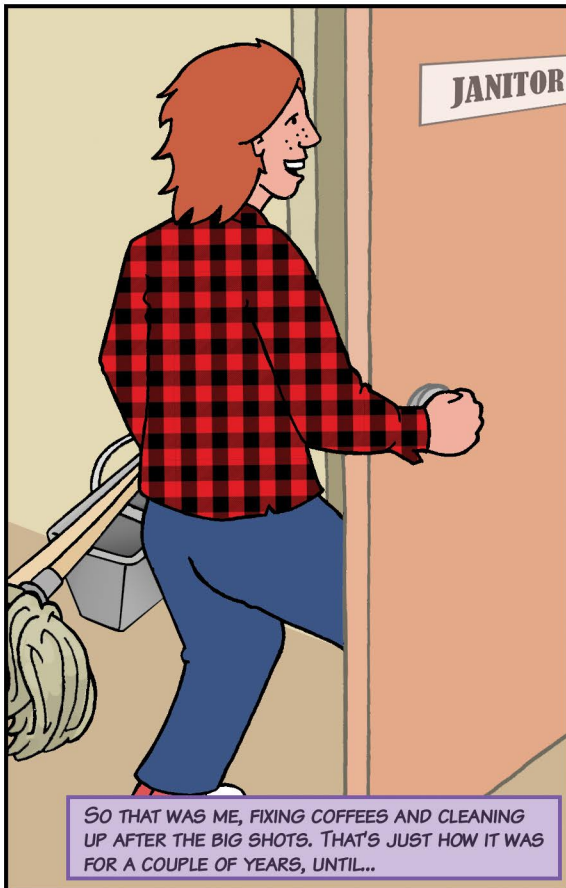

HERE I AM AT 10 EAST 40TH STREET, WHERE MY EMPLOYER, MARVEL COMICS, IS BASED IN THIS GLORIOUS YEAR, 1996 AD.

IT WAS ANOTHER DAY HARD AT WORK IN THE BULLPEN.

HEY, I NEVER SAID MY JOB WAS ACTUALLY MAKING COMICS, DID I?!

SO THAT WAS ME, FIXING COFFEES AND CLEANING UP AFTER THE BIG SHOTS. THAT'S JUST HOW IT WAS FOR A COUPLE OF YEARS, UNTIL...
